A. [REDACTED]

REMARKS:

3. Q. Will all Comptroller Instructions and Notices and Division Operating Procedures be made available? If not all, will only those pertaining solely to vouchered funds be made available?

A. No as a general rule. The same treatment as for B.1. would apply.

REMARKS:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

4. Q. Will information be made available as to the funding of the Agency's operations through other U. S. Government Agencies?

A. No. They know that our funds are buried in other Agency appropriations and this is all they need to know.

REMARKS:

5. Q. Will information be made available that reflects the overall accounting system of the Agency's activities and the relationship of the vouchered and confidential funds accounting controls?

A. So long as they relate solely to overt activities.

REMARKS:

6. Q. Will the Charts of Accounts of both vouchered and confidential funds be made available?

A. Fiscal Division yes. Finance Division no.

REMARKS:

7. Q. Will all the accounting records covering vouchered funds activities be made available? Will the general ledger which reflects the total appropriation be made available? Will vouchered funds payroll records be made available? Accounting reports?

A. Generally yes. However, data and supporting documentation relating to general ledger account 137 will not be made available. Payroll records may be made available but an investigation of the utilization of personnel paid by Fiscal will not be permitted.
